What comes to mind when you hear the term Risk Resilience™? Flexibility? Agility? Yes and yes! We define it as a state in which you can continuously learn, quickly iterate processes, and allocate resources to boost your flexibility and agility, no matter what is thrown your way. This Risk Resilient posture allows organizations to more confidently use, evolve and leverage their business-critical spreadsheets, anticipate and reduce risk exposure, and increase their ability to make business decisions based on good data.

Many of our customers have become Risk Resilient. Read the CRO Guide: The Path to Risk Resilience to learn how you can too.

Best regards,

Incisive Empowers the Largest U.S. Car Financing Company to Gain Greater Control Over Spreadsheet Risk

The Company
The largest U.S. car financing company in the U.S. is a public company with over 100,000 employees and over $100 billion in assets. It is a leading provider of financing services and is a major player in the automotive industry.

The Challenge
The bank's critical spreadsheets were scattered across multiple systems, making it difficult to manage and control. This led to data inconsistency and increased risk of errors.

Incisive Benefits

- Enabled the bank to gain a single view of all spreadsheets, making it easier to manage and control.
- Provided a self-service portal for users to manage their spreadsheets, reducing the burden on IT.
